

PAEDOPHILIA SUPERMARKET OF VIOLENCE DISCOVERED ON THE WEB -Siracuse, Italy, Sept 2 - A paedophile web site that proposes 58 CD Rom, 60 hours of extreme child-pornographic sex, 200 pictures that exhibit the product and involves 250 children aged between 2 and 12, scuffles and blows, rapes on little children, was discovered in Sicily. It is a kind of supermarket of horror, the price of every Cd Rom varies from 300 to 1000 euros depending on the preference on the grade of violence, the children involved are visibly Europeans. The discovery was made by the volunteers of the association Meter of Don Fortunato Di Noto, who work for the rights of children and against paedophilia. It was immediately denounced to the postal police of Catania and to the Interpol and FBI. The site is based in the UK. According to Don Fortunato, president of the Meter association and member of the scientific committee of Cyclope of the prime minister's office, "the nationality of the children varies and there is the suspect that some of them were Italian. The most serious fact is that people who abused of the children are not masked as they expected to escape any consequence". The level of child pornographers has increased because this kind of illicit traffic often goes unpunished and because it is difficult to individuate the victims.
